Colby, Liberal, Garden City and Dodge City state driver's license offices closed Wednesday and Thursday for training

Oct. 14, 2011

TOPEKA – The state driver's license offices in Colby, Liberal, Garden City and Dodge City will be closed Wednesday and Thursday for training on the new Driver Record Issuance & Verification Solution system.

The offices will resume normal hours Friday, Oct. 21.

The training and new system are part of the DMV modernization project the Kansas Department of Revenue, Division of Vehicles, is in the process of implementing statewide.

Once it is finished, the project will allow the department to offer license and title services more efficiently and securely.
