INSTRUCTIONS FOR FORM RF-9

GENERAL INFORMATION

This form is used to claim a refund on behalf of a deceased taxpayer. Complete a separate Form RF-9 for each type of tax refund claimed. For example, if a decedent has a refund on an Income Tax and/or Food Sales Tax return, Form K-40, and a Homestead refund on Form K-40H for the tax year, submit Form RF-9 and documentation with each, or for each, type of return.

SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS

Refund Type: Check the appropriate box. File a separate Form RF-9 for each type of refund.

Refund Tax Year: Enter in the appropriate space the calendar tax year of the refund (i.e., 2005) OR fiscal year end date (i.e., September 30, 2005) of the decedent's refund.

Decedent Information: Print or type the decedent's full name – first, middle initial, and last name. Enter the date of death as mm/dd/yyyy. Enter the decedent's Social Security Number.

Claimant Information: Print or type all the requested information. The claimant's Social Security Number (or EIN if a trust) must be given. This is information the department will use to mail the refund check. Please include a daytime telephone number so we may contact you if we have any questions.

Check the appropriate box for the reason you are claiming the decedent's refund. Be sure to enclose the required documentation with each Form RF-9. Refer to the "Documentation Required to Claim a Decedent Refund" section that follows.

If you are an heir at law, list the name, relationship and age of all the decedent's heirs at law, listing yourself on the first line. If additional space is needed, attach a separate sheet.

Signature: Read the statements at the bottom, sign and date the form.

How to Submit Form RF-9: If the taxpayer died before filing the K-40 or K-40H, enclose the RF-9 and documentation with the K-40 or K-40H when it is filed. If the taxpayer died after filing the income tax return or homestead refund claim, mail the RF-9 and documentation to:
