The Kansas Department of Revenue may deny, suspend, or revoke the privilege of installing an ignition interlock device or the privilege of being an installer for any violation of the law, rules, or regulations relating to the installation, removal, and servicing of such device thereof. The Department may deny, revoke or suspend the installer for the following:

1. Conviction of an operator/owner or instructor of a felony or any crime involving violence, dishonesty, deceit, fraud, indecency or moral turpitude.
2. Knowingly presenting false or misleading information to the Department.
3. Failure or refusal to permit the Department to inspect, audit or investigate the premises, the installation records, etc.
4. Failure to submit the application with supporting documentation within the prescribed time limit.
5. Failure to maintain Department approved standards in instruction, equipment, or facilities.
6. The presence of alcoholic beverages or narcotic drugs on the premises.

I affirm that I have read and understand the obligations of the Ignition Interlock Device installer set forth in the Rules of Ignition Interlock Device Program [redacted] and am fully capable of carrying out said obligations. I give consent for the Kansas Department of Revenue to conduct whatever investigations necessary to determine my eligibility. I understand that false, misleading, or incomplete information in my application may result in denial, cancellation, suspension, or revocation of my application, as well as possible criminal prosecution and civil action. Under penalty of perjury, I do hereby swear or affirm that the information contained within this application, and any statements made in connection therewith, are complete, true, and correct.
