

NOTICE 17-13

2017 Liquid Fuel Carrier License – Propane Haulers

Kansas requires liquid fuel carriers to be licensed if transporting liquid fuel in the amount of 120 gallons or more from any refinery, place of manufacture, production, pipeline terminal, or across the state lines, or when hauling 3,500 gallons or more from any location within the state other than the refinery, place of manufacture, production, or pipeline terminal. See K.S.A. 55-507 below.

K.S.A. 55-507. Liquid-fuel carrier's license; certificates for vehicles. No person shall transport any liquid fuels or motor fuels from any refinery, place of manufacture or production, or pipeline terminal, or across the state line, in quantities of 120 gallons or more over any of the public highways of this state without having first secured from the director of taxation, and at the time holding, a valid, unrevoked liquid-fuels carrier's license and a certificate thereof for each vehicle in which such person transports such fuels, nor shall any person transport any liquid fuel or motor fuels in quantities of 3,500 gallons or more over any of the public highways of this state from any point of origin other than a refinery, place of production or manufacture or pipeline terminal without having first secured from the director of taxation, and at the time holding a valid, unrevoked certificate of a liquid-fuels carrier's license for each vehicle in which such person transports such fuels. This section shall not apply to the transportation by any consumer in the consumer's own vehicle of liquid fuels exclusively for such consumer's own use from the place of purchase to the place where it is to be consumed by such consumer. (emphasis added)

Propane is a liquid fuel. Carriers of propane falling within the guidelines of K.S.A. 55-507 shall be required to register as a Liquid Fuel Carrier by January 1, 2018.

If a propane carrier is not already licensed as a Liquid Fuel Carrier, an application for Liquid Fuels Carrier's License (form MF-26) may be obtained from our website, www.ksrevenue.org. For telephone inquiries, please call 785-368-8222.
